1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Purpose. Activision Publishing, Inc. and its affiliates (collectively “Activision”) created Call of Duty® Challengers (“Challengers”) to serve as the premier Call of Duty® competition platform outside of the Call of Duty League™. Challengers will provide a cohesive global competitive ecosystem as a platform to showcase the best amateur Call of Duty players in the world and serve as the penultimate step in the “Path to Pro”. Challengers competition consists of (i) Call of Duty Challengers Online Tournaments and ladders (collectively, “Challengers Online”); and (ii) Call of Duty Challengers LAN Tournaments (“Challengers LAN”). These Call of Duty® Challengers Tournament Rules, including any updates, amendments or supplements thereto (“Tournament Rules”) codify the rules, eligibility, settings and standards of conduct that will apply as a condition to participation in Challengers. These Tournament Rules apply to all Teams, Team Owners, Team Managers, Team Staff, and Players (“Participants”) who are actively participating in Challengers Online or any event related to Challengers Online, or plan to participate in any current or future event related to Challengers Online. These Tournament Rules have been designed to ensure the integrity of all Challengers competitions, to protect the image and reputation of Challengers and the Franchise (as defined herein), and to create a consistent and high-quality experience for members of the public that view Challengers events. Additional rules for Challengers LAN and select Challengers Online events will be posted to the Call of Duty Challengers Website or provided to Participants before the applicable Challengers LAN event. In the event of a conflict between those rules and these Tournament Rules, these Tournament Rules shall govern except to the extent those rules expressly provide that they supersede these Tournament Rules.
- 1.2. These Tournament Rules form a contract between Participants, on the one hand, and Activision and its affiliates who are engaged in operating Challengers Online (collectively, the “Administration”), on the other hand. These Tournament Rules establish the general rules of online ladder and tournament play and offline tournament activities, including rules governing player eligibility, tournament structure, points structure, prize awards, and player conduct. These Tournament Rules also contain limitations of liability, license grants, and other legally binding contractual terms.
- 1.3. Sharing of Participant Data. In addition, as a critical step in the Path to Pro, each Participant understand that Participant’s personal information and game data is fundamental for Teams to detect talent and prospect for future players. By entering and participating in Challengers, Participants agree to share contact information and game data with Call of Duty League, its affiliates and its member Teams, in accordance with applicable entities’ Privacy Policy in effect from time to time.

- 1.4. THESE TOURNAMENT RULES AND ALL DISPUTES RELATED TO OR ARISING OUT OF YOUR PARTICIPATION IN CHALLENGERS ARE GOVERNED BY A BINDING ARBITRATION CLAUSE AND A WAIVER OF CLASS ACTION RIGHTS IN SECTION 14 HEREIN AS WELL AS LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY AND RELEASE PROVISIONS IN SECTION 12 HEREIN. THESE CLAUSES AFFECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES, AND YOU SHOULD REVIEW THEM CAREFULLY BEFORE ACCEPTING THESE TOURNAMENT RULES. If a provision of these Tournament Rules is or becomes illegal, invalid, or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, that shall not affect the validity or enforceability in that jurisdiction of any other provision of these Tournament Rules or the validity or enforceability in other jurisdictions of any other provision of these Tournament Rules.
- 1.5. Violation of these Tournament Rules may subject a Participant to discipline, including, but not limited to game/match forfeitures, prize forfeitures, and disqualification/removal from Challengers, at the Administration's sole discretion, as further described in Section 11.
- 1.6. Acceptance. Each Participant is required to read, understand, and agree to these Tournament Rules prior to, and as a condition to, participating in Challengers. Participants may accept these Tournament Rules by any of the following methods:
- (a) by signing a Challengers Participation Form, if any, either in print or digitally;

 - (e) by posting a match on the applicable Tournament platform (if applicable);
 - (f) participating in any match that is a part of Challengers; or
 - (g) such other method as may be prescribed by these Tournament Rules.
- 1.7. Changes to and Enforcement of these Tournament Rules. The field of esports competitions is still relatively new and changing rapidly, and these Tournament Rules will evolve in real time to keep pace with those changes. Accordingly, in its sole discretion, Administration (a) may update, amend or supplement these Tournament Rules from time to time; and (b) may interpret or apply these Tournament Rules by releasing bulletins, notices, explanatory videos, online postings, e-mail and/or other electronic communications that provide instructions and guidance to Participants. Administration reserves the right to make any decisions on cases not specifically covered by these Tournament Rules to preserve the spirit of fair competition and sportsmanship. Administration's authority, responsibility, obligations and consent rights as expressed herein will be exercised in Administration's sole discretion. Any material changes to these Tournament Rules will be provided to the Participants prior to the next Challengers event in which the changed rules will apply. Participation in Challengers will constitute acceptance of the changed rules. Changes to Section 14 will be governed by the provisions in that section.

- 1.8. Applicability of these Tournament Rules. These Tournament Rules are intended to provide comprehensive background rules for all aspects of Challengers. Challengers LAN and select Challengers Online events may have additional rules that apply. Those rules will be communicated to Participant before the specific event, which Participant must accept before entering the Challengers LAN event. The Administration reserves the right to make any decision on cases not specifically covered by these Tournament Rules to preserve the spirit of fair competition and sportsmanship. These Tournament Rules are in addition to the Terms of Service, Privacy Policy and all rules governing the use of GameBattles accounts. The current versions of each policy are available at:

3. TEAMS

- (b) Team Branding must not contain any geographic names, marks, symbols or otherwise that conflict with any existing or future Call of Duty League Team Branding.
- (c) All Team apparel for Challengers LAN events must be submitted to Administration at least 2 weeks before it is intended to be shown on broadcast or appear at a live event. Teams and players are required to have their own physical branding if the team is to play in an on-site event. Teams will be required to source this branding on their own. Throughout the period on match day that a Participant is visible to the Challenger's and/or Team's live and camera audience(s), Participants may not wear, display or otherwise convey personal messages without express approval from the Administration, which approval shall not be granted for political messages.

A green notification will appear next to the user's handle when such user's account eligibility is confirmed. Certain Challengers Online events may have additional requirements for Teams that will be communicated to Teams prior to those events. The Administration reserves the right to exclude any Team from Challengers Online for any reason at any time.

3.5. Challengers Online Roster Lock Timing.

- (a) Online Tournaments: Once tournament registration for a Challengers Online tournament is closed, no more roster changes can be made.

Team Owners may not jointly negotiate, coordinate, or otherwise cooperate in negotiating or setting the terms of Player contracts, including without limitation through the use of a common agent.

- (b) Any services agreement between a Team Owner and a Player must permit the Player to:
 - (i) negotiate with Call of Duty League teams regarding service as a player in the Call of Duty League; and
 - (ii) terminate the Player's agreement with the Team Owner in the event the Player accepts a written offer to join the Call of Duty League, subject to Section 3.11(d) below.
- (c) For purposes of clarity, neither a Challengers Team, nor a Team Owner can in any way prohibit communication between a Challengers Player and a Call of Duty League team. Challengers Teams and Team Owners shall be responsible for notifying Players of any communications, offers, or indications of interest by a Call of Duty League team. Any violation of the provisions of this Section 3.11(c) may result in discipline against the Challengers Team and/or Team Owner, including potential termination of the Team License.
- (d) In the event a Player under a services agreement with a Team is signed to a Call of Duty League player contract, the Call of Duty League team will pay to the Team Owner a onetime fee (a "Transfer Fee"). The Transfer Fee will be negotiated between the Team Owner and the applicable Call of Duty League team. There is no minimum Transfer Fee. The maximum Transfer Fee will be equal to 100% of the average annual base salary plus any applicable signing bonus in the player's Call of Duty League player agreement. The Transfer Fee must be paid from the Call of Duty League Team to the Team Owner within 30 days of the Player's execution of a Call of Duty League player contract. Payment of the Transfer Fee is contingent upon Call of Duty League Office approval of the Call of Duty League player contract. If the Call of Duty League Office rejects the agreement for any reason, there is no Transfer Fee owed unless and until the Call of Duty League player contract is subsequently approved. A Transfer Fee is only required if a player is under contract with a definite term. If a player does not have a contract with their organization, or if the contract is terminable at will by or in the sole discretion of either the team or player, then no Transfer Fee is required to be paid. In addition, Transfer Fees are subject to any contractual limitation on such fees in the applicable services agreement.

- (i) For example, and without limitation, in the event a Player is signed to a Call of Duty League contract which provides for a base average annualized salary of $90,000 with a $10,000 signing bonus, the Team Owner and Call of Duty League team could negotiate a Transfer Fee between $0 - $100,000.
- (ii) Neither a Challengers Team nor a Team Owner can attempt to prohibit a Player from joining a Call of Duty League team with which that Player has signed a contract to compel early payment of the Transfer Fee. Upon signing a contract with a Call of Duty League team, the newly contracted Player is free to report to the Call of Duty League team as of the effective date of the player contract.

3.12. Team Name. Team Names may be reviewed by Administrator. Team Names may be denied at any time that may not reflect the professional standards of Activision or the Administration. Effected teams will be required to submit and play under another approved name. Team Name restrictions include, but are not limited to:

13.3. Participant acknowledges and agrees that Participant shall not acquire any rights in or to Challengers, the Franchise, or Challengers Materials (as defined below) as a result of Administration’s use of the Challengers Materials in connection with the permitted uses hereunder

- (a) As between each Participant and Administration, Administration will be the sole owner of all of the following (collectively, the “Challengers Materials”):
 - (i) Licensed Materials and Advertising and Commercial Materials (excluding Participant Materials that are incorporated into or used in the Licensed Materials or Advertising and Commercial Materials; provided, that to the extent such Participant Materials incorporate any Activision intellectual property, such Licensed Materials and Advertising and Commercial Materials shall be owned by Administration);

(v) Intellectual property rights in each of the foregoing existing anywhere in the world.

(b) Subject in all respects to Section 13.4(a), as between each Participant and Administration, Participant will be the sole owner of Participant Materials. For the avoidance of doubt, Participant's use of the Participant Materials shall at all times comply with the End User License Agreement.

13.5. Works for Hire; Assignment. If a Participant at any time creates, develops or invents any Challengers Materials, the parties acknowledge and agree that all copyrightable Challengers Materials, and all elements, portions and derivative works thereof, shall be created for Administration as "works made for hire" and that all copyrights in and to such Challengers Materials, and in all elements, portions and derivative works thereof, shall vest automatically in, and belong to, Administration. If, however, by operation of law or otherwise, such Challengers Materials or any element, portion and derivative works thereof are not deemed a "work made for hire" or for any reason do not automatically vest in Administration and/or if there are any patents, trademarks, know-how or other intellectual property rights in the works that do not automatically become the property of Administration under the preceding sentence, the Participant hereby assigns (and agrees at the time of creation to assign) to Administration and/or its designee, in each case for no additional consideration, by way of present assignment of future copyright and other intellectual property rights, all worldwide rights, title and interest, including all copyright and other patent, trademark and other intellectual property rights worldwide, in and to all Challengers Materials (and in all elements, portions and derivative works thereof) and agrees to take, at the expense of Administration or its designees, any and all such other actions reasonably deemed appropriate by Administration or its designee in furtherance of such assignment, including, without limitation, the execution and delivery to Administration or its designee of any further instruments of assignment reasonably requested by Administration or its designee. Such assignment includes the transfer and assignment to the Administration and its successors and assigns of any and all moral rights which Participant may have in the Challengers Materials. To the extent such moral rights cannot be assigned under applicable laws, Participant hereby waives and agrees not to assert any such moral rights Participant may have, and to the extent Participant is not permitted to waive moral rights by law, Participant hereby permits Administration (or any successor or transferee thereof) at any time to modify or to change the Challengers Materials or to accompany the Challengers Materials with any illustrations, prefaces, after-words, comments and other materials, and Participant confirms that such amendments, changes or accompaniment will not cause harm to its honor or reputation and does not constitute a distortion or mutilation of the Challengers Materials and other associated materials. For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of this Section 13.5, “Administration” shall exclusively mean Activision Publishing, Inc.

- 13.6. Participant Representations and Warranties. Participant is solely responsible for the Participant Materials. Participant represents and warrants: (a) Participant is the author or creator of, or owns all right, title and interest in and to, the Participant Materials or otherwise has sufficient power and authority to grant the rights granted herein, including pursuant to Section 13.1; and (b) the Participant Materials and the exercise of rights in Participant Materials granted under these Tournament Rules do not and will not (i) defame any other person or (ii) infringe, violate, dilute, or misappropriate any third-party right, including any copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, moral right, privacy right, right of publicity, or any other intellectual property or proprietary right of any kind or nature relating thereto recognized by United States law and applicable foreign and international laws, treaties and conventions. Administration and Activision reserve all rights and remedies against any Participant who breaches this Section.
- 13.7. Waivers. By agreeing to these Tournament Rules, Participant hereby waives, and agrees not to assert, any (a) rights of prior review and/or approval of any of the Licensed Materials or Advertising or Commercial Materials, and (b) moral or other equivalent rights (if any) to which Participant is or may become entitled under applicable law in relation to the Licensed Materials, Advertising and Commercial Materials, or to Participant’s participation in Challengers or Activision events. Nothing in these Tournament Rules requires Administration (or its sublicensees) to make use of any of the rights or licenses granted herein.
- 13.8. Collection of Personal Data. Major League Gaming Corp. (“MLG”) will collect, store and use information collected in connection with Challengers and Challengers events (including information collected at live events) in accordance with MLG’s online privacy policy (the “MLG Privacy Policy”) for certain regions set forth in the MLG Privacy Policy. By accepting these Tournament Rules, each Participant acknowledges having read the MLG Privacy Policy available at https://accounts.majorleaguegaming.com/privacy_policy.

14. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

- 14.1. Disputes Regarding Tournament Rules. Administration has final, binding authority to decide disputes with respect to the breach, termination, enforcement, or interpretation of Sections 1 through 12 of these Tournament Rules (“Rules Dispute”).
- 14.2. Binding Arbitration for Arbitration Disputes. All disputes, claims or controversies that Administration may have against a Participant or that a Participant might have against Administration, and all disputes, claims or controversies arising out of, relating to, or in connection with a Tournament, Tournaments, or these Tournament Rules, or the breach or the validity thereof, including the determination of the scope or applicability of these Tournament Rules to arbitrate and the jurisdiction of the arbitrator, and that is not otherwise subject to Administration’s final, binding authority (whether under Section 14.1 or under separate written agreements entered into with Administration or its affiliates) or otherwise subject to arbitration under separate written agreements entered into with Administration (“Arbitration Dispute”) will be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by a single arbitrator appointed in accordance with the said rules. The seat of arbitration will be New York, New York. The arbitration shall be conducted and the award shall be rendered in English (with translation services provided if required). Notwithstanding the choice of law clause in Section 14.4, the arbitration and this agreement to arbitrate shall be governed by Title 9 (Arbitration) of the United States Code. All costs and expenses for the arbitration will be borne in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. All matters relating to the arbitration, including any final award, will be considered the confidential information of the parties to the Arbitration Dispute. The parties to any Arbitration Dispute agree that they will only file with the court the portions of the award necessary to enter judgment and enforce the award and that they will make every effort to exclude confidential information from what is to be filed with the court, with any disagreements related thereto to be decided upon by the arbitrator prior to any court filing. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding on the parties to the Arbitration Dispute, and any award of the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. This Section 14.2 will not preclude a party to a dispute from seeking provisional remedies in aid of arbitration from a court of appropriate jurisdiction in respect of Arbitration Disputes or preclude Administration from seeking and obtaining from any court of competent jurisdiction (without the need for Administration to post any bond or other security) temporary and/or preliminary injunctive relief against a Participant for any breach by the Participant of the terms of these Tournament Rules.

Except as otherwise provided by these Tournament Rules or applicable law, each party to any legal action or proceeding brought against the other party will be responsible for their own attorneys' fees, experts' fees, court costs and all other expenses sustained in the course of such litigation (including any appeals).

14.3. Class Action Waiver.

- (a) By agreeing to these Tournament Rules, each Participant agrees that any arbitration will be limited to the Arbitration Dispute between Administration and the Participant individually.
- (b) By agreeing to these Tournament Rules, each Participant acknowledges and agrees that: (i) a claim by, or on behalf of, other persons, will not be considered in, joined with, or consolidated with, the arbitration proceedings between the Participant and Administration unless the Participant and Administration agree to such a consolidation; (ii) there is no right or authority for any Rules Dispute or Arbitration Dispute to be arbitrated, adjudicated, or resolved through court proceedings on a class-action, collective action, private attorney general or representative action basis or to utilize class action, collective action, or private attorney general or representative action procedures; and (iii) the Participant will not have the right to participate as a class representative, collective action representative, or private attorney general, or as a member of any class, collective action, or private attorney general or representative action for any Rules Dispute or Arbitration Dispute. Under no circumstances does any Participant or Administration agree to class, collective, private attorney general or representative action procedures in arbitration or court proceedings or the joinder of claims in arbitration or court proceedings. The foregoing provisions of Section 14.3(a) and this Section 14.3(b) are referred to as the "Class Action Waiver".
- (c) In any case in which: (i) the Rules Dispute or Arbitration Dispute is filed or pursued as a class action, collective action, or private attorney general or representative action; and (ii) all or part of the Class Action Waiver is found to be unenforceable, the class action, collective action, or private attorney general or representative action to that extent must be litigated in a civil court of a competent jurisdiction within New York, New York, but any individual claims for which the Class Action Waiver is deemed enforceable must be litigated separately in arbitration. The Class Action Waiver will be severable in any case in which the Rules Dispute or Arbitration Dispute is filed or pursued as an individual action and severance is necessary to ensure that the individual action proceeds in arbitration.

14.4. Governing Law.

- (a) These Tournament Rules, all Rules Disputes and Arbitration Disputes will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New York, United States of America, without regard to choice of law principles, provided that Administration will have the right to disqualify any Participants that are rendered ineligible to participate due to local law. This selection of governing law shall supersede any prior choice of law contained in any prior version of the Tournament Rules executed by the Participant.
- (b) Participants agree to be bound by these Tournament Rules and by the decisions of Administration with respect to the disciplinary actions imposed for their violation, which are final and binding in all respects.
- (c) In recognition of Challengers status as a global league, Administration will endeavor to provide official translations of these Tournament Rules. In the event of any conflict between the English version and any translation of these Tournament Rules, the English version will control.

From the time that Administration provides notice of any changes to this Section 14, any Participant may cease participating in any Tournament subject to these Tournament Rules.
